

Public invited to Law Day presentations

KINGMAN – Mohave County champions of justice will present a “Legacy of Liberty” in celebration of Law Day.

Mohave County Superior Court, Community Legal Services and Mohave County Bar Association are sponsoring a Law Day Afternoon Friday, May 1, from 2 until 4 p.m. at the historic Mohave County Courthouse, third floor courtroom, 401 E. Spring Street, in Kingman.

According to County Law Librarian Lori Linn, the theme of this year’s Law Day is “A Legacy of Liberty – Celebrating Lincoln’s Bicentennial.” During the afternoon, Judge Rick Williams will read the Gettysburg Address; County Attorney Matt Smith will speak; Chief Probation Officer Friend Walker will present awards to essay winners; and the Lake Havasu City Teen Court will present a Mock Trial.

Other sponsored Law Day presentations will be held throughout the day beginning at 9 a.m. in Kingman.

In Courtroom F at the Courthouse in Kingman, a presentation on bankruptcy will be given from 9 until 9:45 a.m. by Mark Sippel. From 10 until 10:45 a.m., home foreclosure will be covered by Jeffrey Goldberg. Deborah Liverence and Sippel will discuss debt collection from 11 until 11:45 a.m.
