WARNING TO DEFENDANT

You have the right to be present at your trial and a number of proceedings of which you will be notified. If you do not appear at the time set by the Court, a warrant will be issued for your arrest and the proceedings will begin without you.

CONSEQUENCES OF VIOLATING THIS ORDER

If the Defendant violates any conditions of this release order, the court may order the bond and any security deposited in connection therewith forfeited to the State of Arizona.

In addition, the Court may issue a warrant for the Defendant's arrest upon learning of the violation of conditions of release. After a hearing, if the Court finds that the Defendant has not complied with conditions of release it may modify the conditions or revoke the Defendant's release altogether.

If the Defendant was released on a felony charge and the Court finds the proof evident or the presumption great that the Defendant committed a felony during the period of release, the Court SHALL revoke the release. Such Defendant would also be subject to an additional charge, and upon conviction could be punished by imprisonment for not more than five years in the state prison, in addition to the punishment which would otherwise be imposed for the crime committed during the period of the release.

Upon finding that the Defendant or any other person named in this order has willfully violated its terms, the Court may also find the Defendant or other person in Contempt of Court and sentence that person to a term of imprisonment, a fine, or both.

Defendant's Constitutional Rights form and Video Arraignment Information For Felony Initial Appearances and Misdemeanor Arraignments.

This form is provided for your Court appearance.

Directly below are your basic Constitutional Rights and in addition you may be required to view a video outlining rights and procedures.

- A] You have the right to a trial, or jury trial, depending on what you have been charged with;
- B] You have the right to the assistance of an attorney at all stages of the proceedings and in the certain cases to an appointed attorney to be furnished free of charge if you cannot afford one;
- C] You have the right to confront the witnesses against you and to cross examine them;
- D] You have the right to present evidence on your own behalf and to have the state compel witnesses of your choosing to appear and testify;
- E] You have the right to remain silent and to be presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt;
- F] Your Court appearance will normally be accomplished by utilizing the Video Arraignment System as long as you knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily agree to do so

When the Judge appears, you will be asked, "Did you read the defendants rights form, do you understand your rights?" If you do not understand any portion of the form, tell the Judge and then the Judge will explain your rights to you again OR you will be asked to view the video again outlining your rights, procedures and instructions.

I HAVE READ THE ABOVE INFORMATION AND/OR VIEWED THE RIGHTS VIDEO AND FULLY UNDERSTAND MY RIGHTS.
