

INSTRUCTIONS: HOW TO FILL OUT THE FORMS TO REQUEST TEMPORARY ORDERS IN CASES INVOLVING MINOR CHILDREN

Either party can file a “Motion for Temporary Orders” while waiting for a final court order, provided that a Petition for Divorce, Legal Separation or Annulment, or to establish Legal Decision Making, Parenting Time, and/or Support (with or without establishment of Paternity) has already been filed by either party, or you will be filing one of those petitions at the same time you file your request for temporary orders.

FILL OUT THE COURT FORMS FOR TEMPORARY ORDERS: Use black ink. Write clearly.

SENSITIVE DATA SHEET: Complete this form and file it with the Clerk of Court. This form is for court use only and is not part of the public record. Do not provide a copy of this document to the other party.

MOTION FOR TEMPORARY ORDERS: Fill in the information requested about you, the person filing this “Motion for temporary Orders,” in the upper left corner. Write in the case number if you or the other party has already filed one of the Petitions noted above. If you have not already filed a case, the Clerk of the court will stamp a number on your papers when you file them. Check the boxes under “Motion for Temporary Orders” to indicate the type of temporary orders you are requesting. Then complete the rest of the Motion.

- Check the boxes and fill in the information requested only in the sections that apply to what you are asking the court to order.
- List the names and dates of birth of the minor child(ren) if any, affected by this Motion. Check the boxes that apply to what you are asking the court to grant. If you are asking for a temporary division of property, the judge/commissioner can only grant exclusive use and possession of the property and usually limits this to the house and/or cars. If you are asking for a temporary division of the debt, be sure to list debt carefully.
- If you are only asking for child support or other temporary orders regarding child related issues, and not for spousal maintenance temporary division of property or debt, etc, at this time, leave those sections blank and do not check any boxes related to those matters.
- Likewise, if you are only asking for orders regarding spousal issues and are not asking for any orders regarding legal decision making, support or parenting time, you may ignore the sections relating to child support, legal decision making and parenting time/visitation matters.
- Sign the document in the presence of a Clerk of the Court or a Notary Public.

NOTE: Spousal Maintenance and other spousal orders are only available in cases of Divorce, Legal Separation, or Annulment. If you are not legally married to the other party, you may want to consult an attorney to help determine your rights and responsibilities.

ORDER TO APPEAR: This is the document the judge’s staff will complete to set the hearing for the temporary orders. Complete the top part of the “Order to Appear” with the names of the parties, and the case number. Leave the rest blank for the judge to fill out.

TEMPORARY ORDER: This is the document the judge will sign after your court hearing. Complete the top part of the “Temporary Order” with names of the parties and the case number. Leave the rest blank for the judge to fill out. The Temporary Orders are not valid until signed and dated by the judge after the court hearing.

NOTE: Some forms are only required if you are asking for temporary orders regarding minor children, and some are only required if you are asking for temporary orders regarding spousal maintenance / support.
