

INSTRUCTIONS: HOW TO FILL OUT FORMS TO RESPOND TO A PETITION ABOUT LEGAL DECISION MAKING, PARENTING TIME, and CHILD SUPPORT

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: Domestic violence can include physical violence directed against you or your children such as hitting, slapping, pushing, or kicking. Domestic violence can also include threats of physical violence made against you and your children, or regular verbal abuse used to control you. The person who hurts you does NOT need to have been convicted of domestic violence or assault for you to be a domestic violence victim, and you do not need to have sought medical care or been admitted to a hospital to be a domestic violence victim.

All court documents will request your address and phone number. If you are a victim of domestic violence and are in a domestic violence shelter, or if you do not want your address known to protect yourself or your children from further violence, you must file for an “Order of Protection” first and ask that you address not be disclosed on court papers. With that Order, you do not need to put your address and phone number on your court papers. Write “protected” where asked for this information and update the Clerk of the Court with an address and phone number as soon as possible so that the Court can reach you.

OTHER INFORMATION ABOUT THE MINOR CHILDREN: If you are aware of court cases about the minor child(ren), you need to tell the court. 7. Fill out where the minor child(ren) from this action have been living for the past 5 years; if any of the minor child(ren) are under age 5, simply put information since their birth. Write each minor child's name; the address where the minor child lived; what dates the minor child lived at each address; who the minor child lived with; and the relationship of that person to the minor child. While you may not remember exact dates when you moved from one location to another, fill this information out as completely as possible.
8. You must tell the court if you participated as a party or witness in any court case involving legal decision making or parenting time of the minor child(ren). If not, mark the first box and GO ON. If there is another case, mark the second box and give as much information as possible. This information could affect you or your minor child(ren)'s rights in this case.
9. The court MUST know if there have been other cases involving legal decision making, parenting time or child support of the minor child(ren), even if you were not a party. person, put the information here, including the minor child's name and the person who believes they have a legal decision making or parenting time claim. If there is such a person, you must include the person as a respondent in this court case.

OTHER STATEMENT TO THE COURT:

12. OTHER EXPENSES: This asks for a fair division of all expenses about the minor child(ren).
13. DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: This tells the court if there was domestic violence in the relationship, and relates to a request for joint legal decision making, if you intend to ask for joint legal decision making. Mark the box corresponding to your situation. If you are not sure what this means, see the IMPORTANT NOTICE TO VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE on page one of these instructions.
14. GENERAL DENIAL: This tells the court that, even if you did not answer each and everything said in the petition, you deny what you did not address. This is extra protection for you.

REQUESTS MADE TO THE COURT FOR LEGAL DECISION MAKING, PARENTING TIME and CHILD SUPPORT:

This section of the Petition formally requests that the court make Orders relating to issues such as legal decision making, parenting time and/or support.

1. LEGAL DECISION MAKING OF MINOR CHILD(REN) AND PARENTING TIME:

- A. JOINT LEGAL DECISION MAKING: If you are asking for joint legal decision making, you must file a Joint Legal Decision Making Agreement that is signed by both parents and approved by the court.
- B. SOLE LEGAL DECISION MAKING: If you want sole legal decision making, check the boxes that apply, including the parenting time you are asking for. Tell the court whether you want legal decision making of the minor child(ren) to go to you or the other party.

PARENTING TIME: Mark one box only. You can ask that the non-custodial parent (the parent having physical legal decision making of the minor child(ren) less than 50% of the time) have one of the following types of parenting time:

- 1) Reasonable Parenting Time. This suggests an amount of parenting time appropriate to the age of the minor child(ren). The court offers suggested amounts of parenting time, but the amount can vary by agreement of both parents. Complete the Parenting Plan before you go to the judge for your final order.
- 2) Supervised Parenting Time to the Non-Custodial Parent. You may request supervised Parenting Time if the Non-Custodial parent cannot adequately care for the minor child(ren) or cannot do so without another person present. You may request this if the person not having legal decision making abuses drugs or alcohol; is violent or abusive; or, does not have the parenting skills to care for the minor child(ren) without another adult present. Remember, supervised or no parenting time is not intended to punish the parent, but to protect the minor child(ren). You must write in specifically why you say the parenting time should be supervised or no parenting time allowed.

- 3) Supervised Parenting Time: Describe how you think this should work and who should pay for it.
 - 4) No Parenting Time to the Non-Custodial Parent. You should mark this option only if the non-custodial parent has seriously harmed, abused, or otherwise is a serious danger to the minor child(ren)'s physical and emotional health, or if there is a criminal Court Order stating there is to be no contact between the minor child(ren) and the non-custodial parent. This is the last resort to protect the minor child.
2. CHILD SUPPORT: Mark which party should pay child support. (Note: the box you mark should match what you asked for in the Petition).
 3. MEDICAL, DENTAL, VISION CARE INSURANCE AND HEALTH CARE EXPENSES: Mark which party should be responsible for medical, dental, and vision care insurance and expenses.
 4. OTHER ORDERS. If you have made other requests of the court, write the specific additional orders you are requesting the court to make that were not covered elsewhere in your Petition.
