

Instructions: How to fill out papers for a response to a petition for legal decision-making authority (legal custody), parenting time and/or child support

Use these forms if you want to respond to a petition for legal decision-making authority (legal custody), parenting time and/or child support.

Domestic Violence

Domestic violence can be part of any relationship. Domestic violence includes physical violence such as hitting, slapping, pushing or kicking, directed against you and/or your children and/or it can also include regular verbal abuse and/or threats of physical violence made against you and/or your children, as a method to control you.

Court documents request your address and phone number. If you are a victim of domestic violence, or if you do not want your address known to protect yourself or your children from further violence, you must file a Request for Protected Address and ask that your address not be disclosed on court papers. If the Court grants your Request, you do not need to put your address and phone number on your court papers. If possible, get a P.O. Box or use another valid address on these papers. If you have no other address or phone number where you can be reached, write “protected” on the forms where asked for this information. You must, as soon as possible, tell the Clerk of Superior Court an address and phone number where you can be reached.

Family Court Sensitive Data

- Write in the information requested about petitioner, respondent, and any children under the age of 18.
- Do not include mailing address on this form if requesting address protection.
- Case Type: Mark only one box that matches the legal procedure for which you are filing the documents in this packet:
- Interpreter: Check “yes” or “no” to indicate whether an interpreter is needed. If “yes,” write in what language(s).

No additional copies needed. Do not serve this document on the other party.

Response

Make sure your form states Response to Petition to Establish Legal Decision-making (Custody), Parenting Time and Child Support OR Petition for Legal Decision-making (Custody) and Parenting Time in the mid right-hand part of the first page. Decide what you want a court order for. Here are your choices:

1. Legal decision-making (custody), parenting time, and child support: Check this box if you have a court order for paternity but not for legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time and child support, OR if you have a court order for child support but need to change it because of what you are asking the court to do with legal decision-making (legal custody) and parenting time.

2. Legal decision-making (legal custody) and parenting time: Check this box if you have a court order for child support and do not think your requested changes to legal decision-making (legal custody) and/or parenting time will change the child support order.
3. Warning: The Judge may change the child support order even if you do not ask for this.

In the top left corner of the first page, fill out the following: your name; address (if not protected); city, state and zip code; telephone number; your email; your ATLAS number, and if you are represented by an attorney and if so, the Attorney Bar Number.

Fill in the space that says, “Name of Petitioner” and “Name of Respondent.”

General information:

1. Fill in the name of the other party (THE PETITIONER), his or her address and date of birth. This is basic information about the other party.
2. Fill in your name (THE RESPONDENT), address (if not protected) and date of birth. This is basic information about YOU and your relationship to the child(ren) for whom you want the custody and/or parenting time order.
3. Information about the Minor Children

Statements about paternity and child support: Tell the court what your current situation is:

4. How was paternity established in your case? Check the box that describes how paternity was established. If none of these apply, STOP! Do not proceed with these forms unless advised to do so by an attorney. Paternity must already be established to use these forms.
5. Information about Child Support. What is your current situation as to child support? Check the box that describes your case.
 - If there is an order for child support provide the date of the order and the name of the court where it was filed. Then check one of the following boxes. Only if there has been a final order made by the court.

- Order does not need to be changed: Check here if you think that the child support order you have does not need to be changed because of the legal decision-making and parenting time order you want. Warning: The judge can decide whether to change the child support order even if you do not want this.
 - Order needs to be changed: Check here if the child support order you have needs to be changed.
 - No child support order: If you have a paternity order only, without a child support order, the judge will make an order on the issues of legal decision-making, parenting time, and child support.
6. Briefly state what is different between what the petitioner claims about paternity and child support and what you claim.

Other information about the Child(ren):

7. Fill out where the children in this case have been living for the past 5 years. Write each child's name; the address where the child lived; the dates the child lived at each address; whom the child lived with; and the relationship of that person to the child. While you may not remember exact dates and address, fill this information out as completely as possible.

Other court cases:

8. You must tell the court if you participated as a party or witness in any court case involving issues other than legal decision-making (legal custody) or parenting time of the child(ren). If your answer is “no,” check the second box and go on. If there is another case, check the first box and give as much information as possible. This information could affect you or your child(ren)’s rights.

Legal Decision Making or Parenting Time court cases related to children:

9. If you are aware of court cases about the children, you need to tell the court. Attach a copy of any order about legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time, or child support to the petition, unless the order is from the Superior Court in Mohave County.
- The court must know if there have been other cases involving legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time or child support of the child(ren) of this case, even if you were not a party. If there are no other legal decision-making (legal custody) or parenting time cases, or you do not know of any, check the first box and go on. If you have been involved in any way with this type of court case, check the second box and give the requested information. Tell the court what happened and what is going on in the other case(s).

Legal Decision Making or Parenting Time Claims of Any Person:

10. If you do not know of another person other than the other party who has physical custody of the child(ren) or is claiming legal decision-making (legal custody) or parenting time rights to any of the children, check the first box and go on. If you know of such a person, put the child's name and the person who believes they have legal decision-making (legal custody) or parenting time claim. You must also include the person as a respondent in this court case.
11. Briefly state what is different between what the petitioner claims about the children and what you claim about the children.

Other statements to the court:

12. Other expenses: This asks for a fair division of all expenses about the children.
13. Domestic violence: This tells the court if there was domestic violence in the relationship and relates to a request for joint legal decision-making (legal custody). If you are not sure what this means, see the paragraph on Domestic Violence on the first page of these instructions. Check the box that best describes your situation.
14. General Denial: you deny anything stated in the petition that you have not specifically admitted, qualified, or denied.

Requests I make to the Court in this Lawsuit:

1. Legal Decision Making of Minor Child(ren): check and complete (a). Joint Legal Decision Making or (b) Sole Legal Decision Making:
 - a. Joint Legal Decision-Making (joint legal custody): If you are asking for joint legal decision-making (legal custody), you must file a Joint Legal Decision-Making Agreement that is signed by both parents and approved by the court later in the process. The Joint Legal Decision-making Agreement is part of the Parenting Plan contained in this packet.
 - b. Sole Legal Decision-Making (sole legal custody): If you want sole authority for legal decision-making, check the boxes that apply.
 - Reasonable Parenting Time. This suggests an amount of parenting time appropriate to the age of the child(ren). The court offers suggested amounts of parenting time, but the amount can vary by agreement of both parents. If you and the other party agree, complete the Parenting Plan before you go to the judge for your final order.

- Supervised or No Parenting time, check only one box. You may request supervised or no parenting time if a party cannot adequately care for the child(ren) or cannot do so without another person present. You may request this if the party to be supervised abuses drugs or alcohol; is violent or abusive; or, does not have the parenting skills to care for the child(ren) without another person present. Remember, supervised or no parenting time is not intended to punish the parent, but to protect the child. You must tell the court in the space provided why you say the parenting time should be supervised, or no parenting time allowed.
- Supervised Parenting time: Describe how you think supervised parenting time should be handled.
- No Parenting time. You should check this option only if the parent has seriously harmed, abused, or otherwise is a serious danger to the child(ren)'s physical and emotional health, or if there is a criminal Court Order stating there is to be no contact between the child(ren) and the parent. This is used only as a last resort to protect the child(ren).

Check below if you are asking for a child support order or a change of child support in this case:

2. Child support: Check which party should pay child support.
3. Health, medical, dental insurance and health care expenses: Check which party should be responsible for health, medical and dental insurance.
4. Tax exemption: It is your responsibility to understand the information regarding tax exemption and how the Affordable Care Act can impact one or both parties if they are required to provide medical insurance.
Check which party is entitled to claim the child(ren) on taxes. Write in child's name and the tax years each party is entitled to claim the child(ren) on taxes.
5. Other Orders I am requesting (explain request here):

Indicate what day you will mail or deliver a copy of your response to the other party.

Declaration of party filing the response: Sign the form. By doing so you are telling the court that everything contained in your Response is true under penalty of perjury.

Other important papers

Parenting Plan

- Fill out the Parenting Plan to let the Court know details about what you want for legal decision-making authority and parenting time. It is important to be specific when filling out the Parenting Plan. You may refer to the “Planning for Parenting Time: Arizona’s Guide for Parents Living Apart” to help make your parenting plan. The Guide is available for purchase at all Superior Court Law Library locations or may be viewed online and downloaded for free from the State Courts’ webpage. <https://www.azcourts.gov/portals/31/parentingTime/PPWguidelines.pdf>
- After completing the Parenting Plan, file it with your Petition.

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Statement to the Court: This form informs the Court about your willingness to participate in either court-provided or private resolution processes. Read through and follow procedures.

Child Support Worksheet

You must use the free online Child Support Calculator at the website listed below to complete a child support worksheet.

- <https://superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/llrc/child-support-calculator>

To complete the child support worksheet, you will need to know:

- Your case number.
- Your monthly gross income and that of the other parent.
- The monthly cost of medical insurance for the minor children who are the subject of this action.
- Monthly childcare amounts paid to others.
- The number of days the minor child(ren) spend with the non-primary residential (custodial) parent.
- Monthly obligations of yourself and the other parent for child support or court-ordered spousal maintenance/ support

After completing the child support worksheet, print out the child support worksheet and file it with your Petition.

Family Court Electronic Distribution Opt Out or Consent

Pursuant to Local Rule DR-1 you must fill out this form to either consent to email distribution of court generated documents or opt out and give the court a valid mailing address for distribution of court generated documents. Please ensure your email address or your mailing address are legible, so the court has your correct information.
