MOTION AND AFFIDAVIT FOR DEFAULT
DECREE WITH MINOR CHILDREN and
WITHOUT A COURT HEARING
A.R.F.L.P. 44.1

I am the Petitioner and I am asking the court to enter a Default Decree of Dissolution of Marriage With Minor Children and Without a Court Hearing. I have put a check mark in each box in front of the statements below that are true and I understand that if any statement is not true, I cannot get a default decree without a hearing.

- I have read this Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree With Minor Children and Without a Court Hearing and to the best of my knowledge everything I have said is true.
- I have paid the filing and service fees or the filing and service fees have been waived or deferred. A copy of the receipt showing payment or a copy of the Order showing that the fees have been waived or deferred is attached.
- To the best of my knowledge, both Petitioner and Respondent are competent and sane.
- At least 60 days have passed since the Respondent was served with the dissolution papers. Service was not done by publication.
- The Respondent has not made an appearance in this matter or filed a Response. I have filed the Application for Default and Default has been entered against the Respondent.
- At the time this action was filed, the Petitioner or the Respondent was domiciled in Arizona or was stationed in Arizona while a member of the United States Armed Forces. If this is an action for dissolution of marriage (divorce), the Petitioner or the Respondent was domiciled or stationed in Arizona for more than 90 days.
- Conciliation services provisions have been met since the filing of the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage or the provisions do not apply. (A.R.S. 25-381.09)

- The marriage is irretrievably broken.
- The Petitioner has completed the Parent Education Class and a Certified of Completion is on file with the Court. (A.R.S. 25-302)
- A Child Support Worksheet has been filed with the Court.
- The wife, to my knowledge, is not pregnant.
- If a claim for spousal maintenance/support has been made a completed Form 6 is attached.
- All the allegations, including those concerning property and debts listed in the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage With Minor Children were true at the time filed and remain true as of the date of the filing of this Motion and Affidavit, OR any changes are explained below:

- Everything in the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage With Minor Children concerning who gets the property and who pays the bills/debts is fair and reasonable. If applicable, attorney fees are itemized on the paper attached to this Motion and Affidavit.
- The relief to be awarded in the Decree of Dissolution of Marriage With Minor Children is the same as the relief requested in the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage With Minor Children OR if the relief to be awarded is different, it has been approved by both parties, as reflected in the Decree of Dissolution of Marriage With Minor Children that has been signed by both parties.
- I understand that my Decree of Dissolution of Marriage With Minor Children must include the legal decision making and parenting time terms of A.R.F.L.P. 44.1(e). (1) whether either party is pregnant with a child common to the parties; (2) provisions for legal decision-making and parenting time, either within the default decree or by a separate parenting plan; (3) a child support order supported by a child support worksheet, but if a party requests any deviation in the child support amount, the default decree or child support order must state the basis for deviation under the child support guidelines; (4) if either party is receiving benefits under Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) or the Title IV-D program, the parties must attach to the default decree the Attorney General's written approval of any specified child support amount; (5) a copy of the filing parent's certificate of completion of the parent information program, if it has not already been filed with the court; (6) a completed income withholding order, including the current employer information sheet; (7) if the parties are requesting joint legal decision-making, a statement as to whether domestic violence has occurred, and the extent of any such violence; (8) for a paternity or maternity action, the identities of the natural mother and father and anyone who has lawful status as a parent or custodian of a child, including the court case conferring that status if it is not the current case.
- I have submitted along with the Motion and Affidavit, two (2) self-addressed stamped envelopes, one addressed to me and one addressed to my spouse, with enough postage for the court to mail a copy of the Decree to each party.

Therefore, I request this Court to sign the attached Decree.
