RESPONSE TO MOTION TO WITHDRAW FROM SUMMARY CONSENT DECREE PROCESS

_____

Name of Respondent

On _____ (date), the parties filed a "Notice of Intent to File a Consent Decree for Dissolution of a Non-Covenant Marriage." [ ] Petitioner [ ] Respondent filed a Motion to Withdraw on _____ (date). I object to the motion and request that the court enter the version of the Consent Decree that was filed jointly at the start of these proceedings.

My reasons are as follows: [check each that applies]

[ ] The agreements reached are binding on both parties because they are in writing and signed by each party.

[ ] The agreements were entered into voluntarily and were not the subject of fraud, duress, coercion, or undue influence.

[ ] The property division terms of the agreements are not unfair.

[ ] If there are minor children, the parenting terms are in the best interests of the minor children and the child support has been calculated in accordance with Arizona's Child Support Guidelines.

The following are additional reasons why the agreement previously reached should be upheld:
